

BOOK STUDY

STARTS JANUARY 10 | 2024

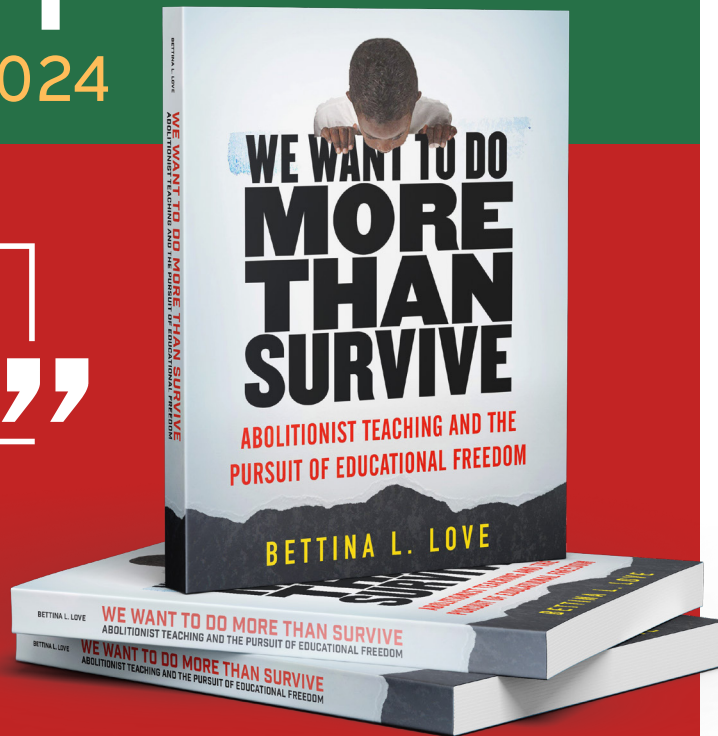

“

We Want To Do More Than Survive is both a love song to our children and a potent weapon...a revolutionary commitment to transforming ourselves, our country, and the world...

- Robin Kelley

”

ABOLITIONIST
joy & justice
TEACHING
LOVEWORKS

CHOOSE YOUR LEVEL OF PARTICIPATION

*Book studies will be virtual from 7pm-8:30pm, CT

ABOLITIONIST

- Attend one of the in-person orientation sessions scheduled between Sept – Dec 2023
- Commit to reading the assigned chapters
- Commit to attending all 4 virtual sessions (book provided)
- Keep a journal of your reflections (journal provided)
- Participate fully & thoughtfully in discussions & activities
- Apply some of your learnings & record findings
- Share your learning & findings with us by participating in our Book Study Post-Survey

CO-CONSPIRATOR

- Commit to reading the assigned chapters
- Commit to attending all 4 virtual sessions
- Participate fully and thoughtfully in discussions and activities
- Share your reflections via our Project Event Evaluation

EMERGING ACTIVIST

- Join us when you can (even if you didn't read the assigned chapters)
- Participate fully & thoughtfully, as well as humbly (especially if you haven't had a chance to read the assigned chapters)
- Share your reflections via our Project Event Evaluation

SPACE IS LIMITED. REGISTER NOW!

For any questions you may have please contact the RSJ Dept. at iearsj@ieanea.org

Funded by NEA Great Public Schools Grant

ILLINOIS
EDUCATION
ASSOCIATION

